

Cancer: the primary cause of death for Europeans under 65

In the European Union

2.7 million new cases and 1.3 million deaths in 2022*

Up to 40% of cancers can be prevented

1 in 2 people are estimated to develop cancer during their lifetime

1 in 5 people are estimated to die because of cancer

In 2018, cancer cost to the EU almost €97 billion

Knowledge Gateway:
<https://europa.eu/!uB47wn>

The European Union needs coordinated actions in the fight against cancer

THE KNOWLEDGE CENTRE ON CANCER

An independent data broker providing support while expanding the EC's IT systems, gateways, portals, platforms and databases

Evidence-clearing house for policy making

Prevention

Early detection

Treatment and survivorship

European Cancer Information System

European guidelines and quality assurance schemes

Cancer screening

Diagnosis

Care

For more information about European Commission Initiatives on cancer:

The Europe's Beating Cancer Plan:
<https://europa.eu/!yV98ru>

The Cancer Mission:
<https://europa.eu/!uU38Kg>